

Thomas Copleston of West Luccombe is given in the Visitations of Devon, Copleston of Copleston, as son of Adam de Copleston, which is by virtue of his dates impossible. He was son of John Copleston, Adam's son, by his second marriage to Alice Luccombe. It has been assumed that this Thomas was father of the five daughters shown in the Visitation, but the dates given for the daughters indicate a missing generation. The following is therefore conjecture:

		Thomas Copleston of West Luccombe	=
