H

Mary, da. of ... Cally of Cotleigh, mar. 1746, bur. 13 Feb. 1756 at Ottery St. Mary.[2]

Joseph Coplestone of Woodland, bap. 22 Jan. 1717-8, bur. 15 Mar. 1759 at Ottery St. Mary,[2] exr. of his father's will. Sold Woodland to Henry Stevens.

Joanna, da. of ...Passmore, 2 wife, married 1759, bur. 13 Nov. 1779 at Ottery St. Mary.[2]

Mary, only surviving child of James Wills of Ottery St. Mary by Joanna, da. of Walter Pulman, died 22 Feb. 1754.

Anthony Coplestone, Attorney at Law of Ottery St. Mary, bap. 2 May 1725 at Little Torrington,[1] bur. 1 Jan. 1784 at Ottery St. Mary.[2]

Betty, da. of ... Salter, 2 wife, buried 14 May 1794 at Ottery St. Mary.[2]

John Coplestone, died an infant.

Joseph Coplestone, bap. 1748, buried 1756, at Ottery St. Mary.[2]

James Coplestone, bap. 8 Mar. 1754, bur. 25 Mar. 1770 at Ottery St. Mary.[2]

Thomas Colby of, Great Torrington, d. 16 Sep. 1824.

Mary, bap. 19 Aug. 1752, mar. 27 Jan. 1780, d. 13 Oct. 1835 at Great Torrington.[3]

Elizabeth, bap. 2 Apl. 1766 at Ottery St. Mary.[2]

Ann, bap. 28 Dec. 1772 bur. 16 Sep. 1792 at Ottery St. Mary.[2]

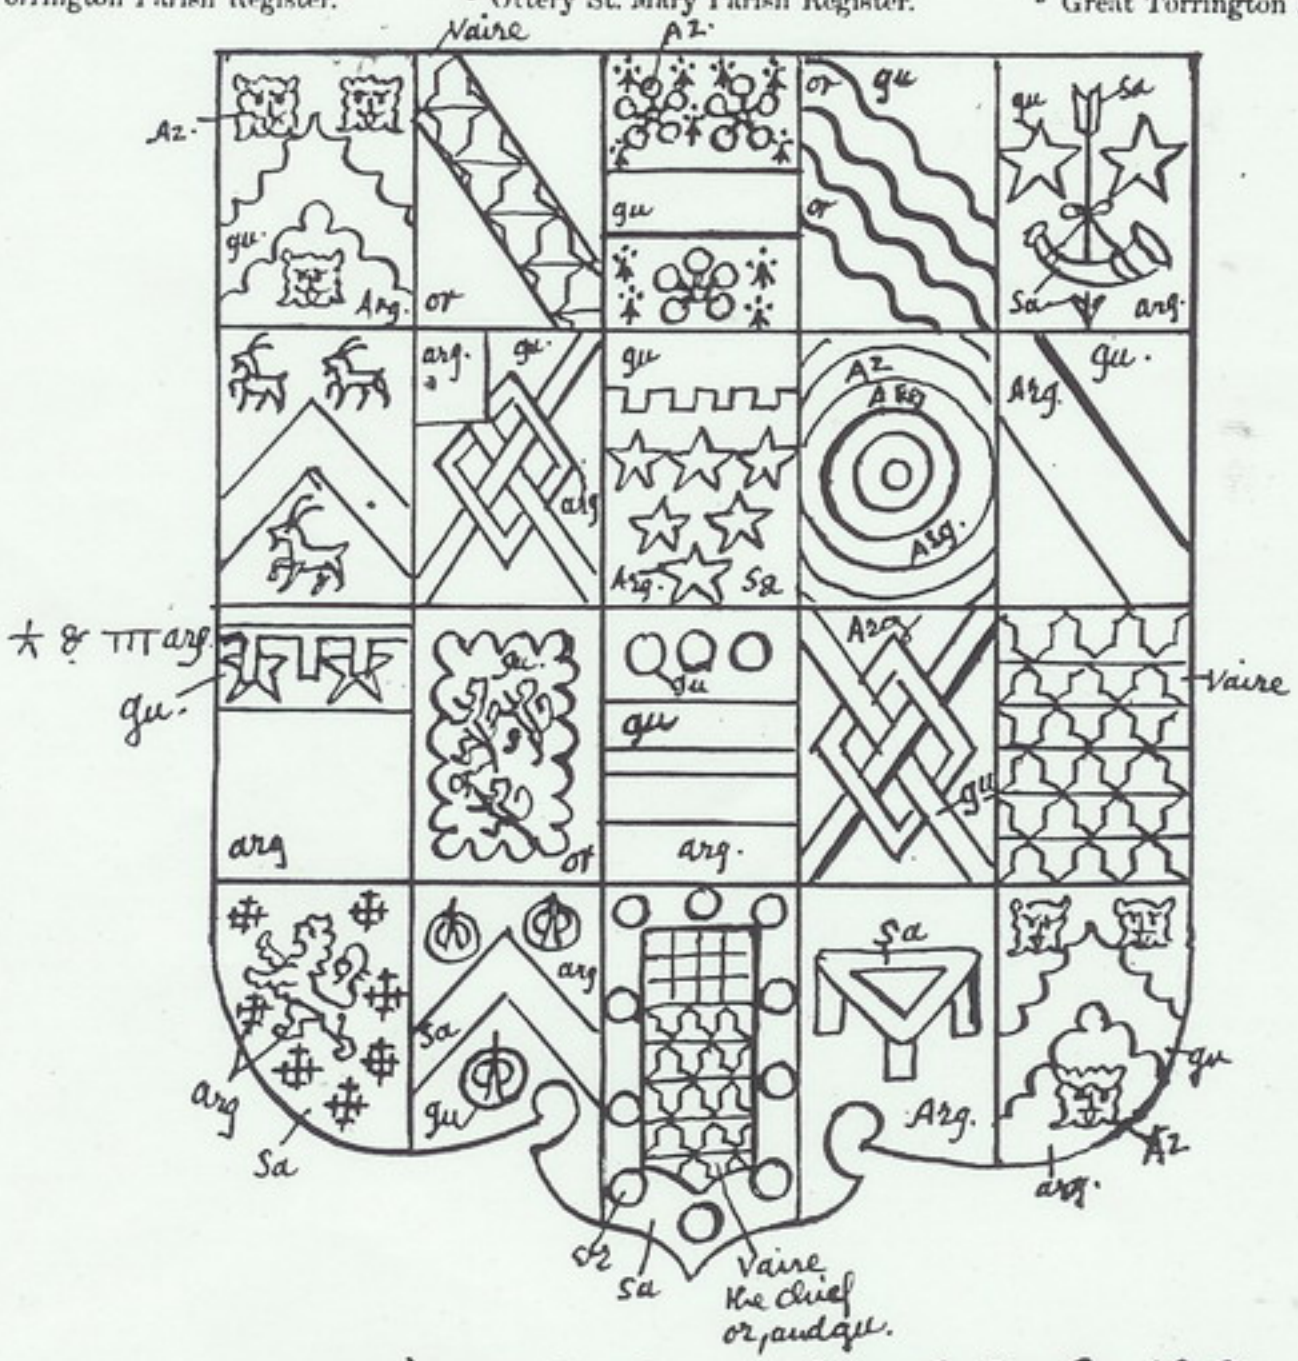
Joseph Coplestone, died an infant.

Sherman Coplestone, bap. 1752.

Elizabeth, da. of ..., bur 1807.

Ann, bur. 27 July 1755.

[1] Little Torrington Parish Register. [2] Ottery St. Mary Parish Register. [3] Great Torrington Parish Register.



This shield is from Harl. MS. 1080. note the addition of a chief in the coat of Bonville in another shield on the same page of this MS. 1080, has only twelve of these quarterings, Bonville having a label of three points, as on the Coplestone monument at Tamerton Foliot, the chief is an error of drawing.